Dear Mr. Gibson:

This is in response to your letter of December 27, 2000 regarding this committee's post-general election report. Please be advised that this report was mailed in what we thought was ample time for receipt before the due date. A second copy has been filed in-person.

Please also note that it is the intention of this committee to comply at all times with the rules and regulations governing federal campaign spending. I regret the inconvenience and apologize for the late arrival.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Timothy E. Meng, DC, FICA
Treasurer
